Getting Ready for CYIA State Training

There are quite a few steps in getting ready to be Summer Missionaries in Christian Youth in Action. As you saw in the last newsletter, the first step was CYIA Pre-Training at Camp Morrow. Then the decision if you are going to give of yourself and a few weeks of your summer to serve the Lord by sharing the gospel with children. But there is also a cost to go to State CYIA Training at Aldersgate Campground in Turner, Oregon. The cost per student which includes their summer 5-Day Club kit is $225. At CYIA Pre-Training we gave the teens ideas on how they could earn money for their training. The teens from Condon had a Spaghetti dinner on Mother’s Day to raise the money for their training. Pictured below right (at the table) are Henry Whatley, Keifer Takagi, Liberty Ensley, Killian Takagi, and Cameron Whatley. What a great thing to receive support from your church family and make a way for Mothers to have dinner prepared for them. We have other teens earning money by pulling weeds for people here in The Dalles. We’ve had some work done outside of the CEF office to help in the cost of State Training also. I will be working with another CYIA teen next weekend in clearing tree branches here at the office to help her earn some money. All the teens are expected to buy their five CYIA shirts they will be wearing at the summer 5-Day Clubs. The cost of those shirts are $25, but for those who have completed their lesson devotions and turned them in will have them paid for by Mid-Columbia Chapter. I also know many of these CYIA teens either share before or after their summer with their churches and supporters what God is doing in their lives.

Good News Review

Things have been buzzing here at the CEF office. Getting teens signed up and ready for training and summer schedules is just some of the things we have been doing. It has been great having Lurel and John here to help and see how all this comes together. My Mother always said, "Many hands make the work light." You can also see by the front page that we have CYIA teens working to make their training possible. Being proactive in getting ready for this summer is something we are all working on.

I have included the updated Summer Schedule so you can see the area we will be covering. Those towns represent the Mid-Columbia counties of Hood River, Wasco, Gilliam, Wheeler, and Klickitat and Skamania counties in Washington. Please pray for travel safety and finances to fill up our gas tanks. We also have a team going to Montana and would appreciate your prayers for them too. Also keep the teens in prayer for State CYIA Training. (Schedule of State Training on back)

The picture below is of Beth Burgess who came to my office to complete a class assignment. She was job shadowing me for the day. She wrote down things that I did and what was going on in the office. Lurel even gave her the job of stapling some papers. After she was done for the day, she asked me questions relating to my job. One of the questions is why I took this job. I told her, "so I could share Jesus with the children. This job really doesn't seem like a job but a privilege."

I would encourage you all to stop by the office and meet John and Lurel if you haven't already. I would like to correct a sentence that John wrote correctly and I put in the wrong word (in last month's newsletter) to give a different meaning. John said, "The World, as you well know, is becoming confusing for children and hostile to Christ. The harvest field is great and I believe you and I are called to this ministry."

The Walk to Emmaus

When the two followers of Jesus walked to Emmaus, they unknowingly encountered the Lord along the way. After Jesus revealed himself to them "They said to each other, 'Didn't our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?'"

Luke 24:32 NLT

Along the way to CEF I have encountered the Lord, regarding this ministry for the children of our communities whom we are reaching for. That burden has kindled into a raging fire in my heart.

Here in the Mid-Columbia Chapter this ministry is growing. We have the largest group of CYIA teen students going to the State Training this summer. Those 22 students are going to be ministering in 26 cities of 7 counties here in Oregon and in Washington. We are seeing interest in new cities and schools where we will be needing more teachers and leaders. We see the Lord moving!

"He said to his disciples, 'The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields.'" Matthew 9:37-38 NLT

We are burdened for this; asking the Lord to bring up willing souls. We will train them and equip them to lead the unchurched harvest to the Lord. Please pray with us. God is doing something in our midst.

Blessings on you all, with sincerest gratitude.

Let the children come, John Pinheiro
